Zat gizi yang dibutuhkan tubuh

- Tubuh manusia membutuhkan zat gizi untuk memperoleh energi guna melakukan kegiatan sehari-hari, untuk memelihara proses tubuh dan untuk tumbuh dan berkembang.
- Berbagai zat gizi yang diperlukan tubuh tersebut dapat digolongkan menjadi karbohidrat, protein, lemak, vitamin, dan mineral.

Karbohidrat	Protein	Lemak
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Karbohidrat merupakan sumber energi utama bagi manusia, yaitu menyediakan 50 - 65% keseluruhan energi yang dibutuhkan. • Karbohidrat banyak terdapat dalam tanaman, seperti beras, jagung, gandum, kentang, singkong, ubi jalar, kentang, talas. • Kelebihan karbohidrat akan disimpan dalam tubuh dalam bentuk lemak. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Protein dari hewan disebut protein hewani, terutama berasal dari daging, susu, telur, ikan, dan makanan laut. • Protein yang bukan berasal dari hewan disebut protein nabati, terutama berasal dari kacang-kacangan, misalnya kacang kedelai. • Protein berfungsi membantu pertumbuhan, memperbaiki otot, memperbaiki sel tubuh yang rusak, dan meningkatkan daya tahan tubuh. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Lemak dari hewan disebut lemak hewani, biasa kita temukan dalam bentuk minyak ikan atau minyak daging (gajih). • Lemak yang bukan berasal dari hewan disebut lemak nabati, biasa ditemukan sebagai minyak goreng. • Lemak berfungsi sebagai cadangan makanan dalam tubuh, pelarut vitamin, dan pemberi rasa gurih pada makanan. • Bahan makanan yang banyak mengandung lemak, diantaranya adalah daging, minyak goreng, mentega, dan margarin.
Vitamin	Mineral
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Vitamin adalah substansi organik yang dibutuhkan dalam jumlah kecil untuk pertumbuhan dan memelihara kehidupan. (Eschleman, 1999) • Tubuh kita tidak dapat memproduksi vitamin sendiri sehingga vitamin harus didapatkan dari makanan sumber vitamin yaitu terutama sayur dan buah-buahan. • Didalam susu terkandung beberapa vitamin yang dibutuhkan tubuh. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Mineral adalah substansi anorganik yang memegang peranan dalam pertumbuhan tubuh dengan menjadi bagian dari hormon pertumbuhan, sel darah merah, enzim, dan tulang. • Mineral terdapat pada beragam makanan hewani maupun nabati. • Mineral penting seperti kalium, fosfor, magnesium, dan besi terdapat dalam susu.

Susu

M mengandung semua jenis jenis zat gizi semua itu lho! Sehingga baik untuk diminum setiap harinya.
